

Relocation Policy for New Joiners

Human Resource Department

AMNEX INFOTECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD.

This Policy sets out the relocation support and reimbursement the Company provides to new employees relocating to take up employment, including the applicable limits, eligibility, and claim process.

Scope:

This Policy applies to new employees who are required to relocate from their current base location to take up employment with the Company. The level of support is linked to the employee's band, as set out below.

Relocation Cost Limits:

Relocation support is reimbursed up to the following limits:

1. Band 1, 2 & 3A: Up to INR 100,000
2. Band 3B & 3C: Up to INR 75,000
3. Band 4 & 5: Up to INR 50,000

Covered Costs:

Within the applicable limit, the following are covered:

- Movement of Household Items From the employee's current base location to their new job location with the Company.
- Transportation of one car and one two-wheeler, based on the employee's preferred mode:
 - where transported through a mover and packer, reimbursed at actual against the invoice, subject to the approved quotation; or
 - where the employee drives the car to the new location, reimbursed at ₹12 per kilometre towards fuel, plus actual toll, parking, and interstate entry or road taxes against supporting bills.
 - Driving a two-wheeler to the new location is discouraged.
- One-way airfare or train fare for the employee and dependents — spouse, up to two children, and dependent parents. Up to four people in total, including the employee, as per the Travel Policy.

Hotel Stay during Relocation:

A new employee is eligible for a hotel stay of up to 14 days, together with declared dependents. The Company books the hotel per the eligibility criteria; any extension must be reviewed and approved by the HR Head.

Relocation Leave:

Within the first 6 months, an employee is eligible to take 5 paid leaves for relocation, under the special leave category.

Recovery:

Where an employee resigns or separates from the Company within one year from the date of joining, the relocation expenses reimbursed shall be recovered in full from the employee's full & final settlement.

Claim Process:

- Three quotes from Movers and Packers are required, and the best quote is selected (the respective recruiter approves the quotations).
- Actual bills must be submitted within 30 Days of Transfer.
- Respective recruiter approval is required for reimbursement processing, confirming the claim is in line with this Policy.

- Any exception to the limits prescribed under this Policy requires prior approval from the HR Head.
