

Maternity Benefit Policy

Human Resource Department

AMNEX INFOTECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD.

The Company provides paid maternity leave and associated benefits to support employees during pregnancy, adoption, or a commissioning arrangement. This policy is framed in accordance with the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (as amended), and in certain respects provides benefits beyond the statutory minimum.

Scope:

This policy applies to all full-time women employees of the Company working in India who have completed at least 80 days of work in the 12 months preceding the expected date of delivery. It applies to the birth of a biological child, adoption, and commissioning (surrogacy) arrangements.

Maternity Leave Entitlement:

- Biological Mothers: 26 weeks of paid leave for each maternity.
- Adoptive and Commissioning Mothers: 12 weeks of paid leave for each adoption or commissioning arrangement, from the date the child is handed over to the mother.
- Maternity leave can be availed up to a maximum of 8 weeks before the expected delivery date, with the remaining leave to be taken post-childbirth.
- Maternity benefits may be availed during probation. Where maternity leave falls within the probation period, the probation may be extended by the duration of the leave to allow a fair assessment on return.

Related Leave:

- Miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy: 6 weeks of paid leave from the date of the miscarriage or termination, on submission of medical documentation.
- Illness arising from pregnancy, delivery, premature birth, miscarriage, or abortion: an additional one month of paid leave.
- Tubal ligation (tubectomy): 2 weeks of paid leave.

Additional Leave and Flexibility:

- Additional unpaid leave of up to 3 months after maternity leave may be availed, subject to Reporting Manager and BU Head approval.
- Earned or casual leave may be used as extended maternity support, subject to the same approval.
- Depending on the role, an employee may apply for extended hybrid or remote working for 3–6 months after maternity leave, subject to team requirements, project deadlines, and Reporting Manager approval.

Salary & Benefits During Leave:

- Full salary, including all fixed components, is paid during the eligible maternity leave period.
- The employee continues to accrue service, gratuity, and other applicable benefits during the leave.

Prenatal and Postnatal Medical Care and Insurance:

- Employees are entitled to paid time off, approved in advance, to attend prenatal and postnatal check-ups and related medical consultations.
- Maternity-related hospitalisation and delivery costs - normal or C-section delivery, and pre- and post-natal care are covered under the Company's group health insurance, subject to policy limits. Details are available on the HRMS under the Group Health Policy.

Nursing Breaks and Creche:

- On resuming duty after childbirth, an employee is entitled to two paid nursing breaks per day, in addition to regular rest breaks, until the child reaches 15 months of age; these do not affect working hours or wages.
- The Company reimburses creche/day-care costs as per law, based on the nearby office location, on a request raised and approved through the HRMS. The employee may visit the creche up to four times a day.
- Nursing breaks may be adjusted in line with crèche visits, subject to mutual understanding with the reporting manager.

Return-to-Work Support:

- A customised return-to-work plan may be developed with the employee which may include flexible working hours, phased re-entry, temporary remote work where feasible, and a buddy support system to ease the transition.

Multiple Births or Complications:

- In the case of multiple births (twins, triplets) or medical complications, an employee may request extended unpaid leave with medical proof, reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Procedure to Avail:

- Notify HR and the Reporting Manager at least 8 weeks before the expected due date.
- Submit a medical certificate and supporting documents stating the expected delivery date.
- HRBP will process the leave on verification of eligibility.

Protections and Confidentiality:

- An employee shall not be dismissed, discharged or subjected to any adverse action during maternity leave, except in case of gross misconduct, the position held prior to the leave will be retained, or an equivalent role will be provided on return.
- All information regarding pregnancy and maternity leave will be treated with strict confidentiality and handled by managers and HR with empathy and discretion.
- Discrimination or bias against a woman availing maternity benefits is prohibited. Discrimination against, or a breach of confidentiality concerning, a woman availing maternity benefits will be addressed in accordance with the Company's Disciplinary Policy.

Policy Exceptions:

Any exception to this policy must be approved by the HR Head.

Revision History:

Version no	Date	Prepared by	Reviewed & approved by
01	1 st August'26	Human Resource Department	Head-HR