

1.1 Gift, Hospitality & Entertainment Policy

Purpose:

This policy provides clear guidelines to all employees on the appropriate offering and acceptance of gifts, hospitality, and entertainment in the course of business activities. It is designed to ensure that all such interactions are conducted with integrity, transparency, and in compliance with applicable laws and organisational standards.

Employees are expected to exercise sound judgment and avoid situations where gifts, hospitality, or entertainment could influence – or appear to influence – business decisions. This policy strictly prohibits offering or accepting anything that could be perceived as a bribe, inducement, or conflict of interest.

All employees are responsible for:

- Adhering to the defined limits and approval processes outlined in this policy
- Disclosing and recording all applicable gifts, hospitality, or entertainment in the Gift & Hospitality Register
- Seeking guidance from their line manager/Project Manager or HRBP in cases of uncertainty

Non-compliance with this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, and may also expose individuals and the organisation to legal liability.

Scope:

This policy applies to all individuals employed with or acting on behalf of Amnex InfoTechnologies Pvt. Ltd. and its Group Companies, including:

- All permanent, contractual, and temporary employees
- Directors and senior management
- All locations, offices, and operations where the organisation conducts business

Third parties acting on behalf of Amnex InfoTechnologies – including agents, distributors, consultants, and intermediaries – are required to adhere to the principles of this policy. Contracts with such parties must include relevant anti-bribery and ethics compliance clauses.

Governance Principles:

Amnex InfoTechnologies Pvt. Ltd. is committed to ensuring that all activities related to gifts, hospitality, and entertainment are conducted with the highest standards of integrity and professionalism. All such activities shall be:

- Ethical – Free from any improper influence, conflict of interest, or bias
- Transparent – Properly disclosed, documented, and recorded in a timely manner
- Accountable – Subject to appropriate approval, monitoring, and oversight
- Compliant – In full adherence to applicable laws, regulations, and internal policies

Gifts, hospitality, and entertainment must:

- Be reasonable, proportionate, and appropriate to the legitimate business context
- Not influence, or be perceived to influence, any business decision or outcome
- Be provided openly and transparently, and accurately recorded in accordance with established procedures

Policy Statement

Amnex InfoTechnologies Pvt. Ltd. adopts a zero-tolerance approach to bribery, corruption, and any form of unethical conduct. Employees and associated parties must not accept or give any gift, hospitality, or entertainment if such an exchange:

- Influences, or appears to influence, business decisions or outcomes
- Creates, or may create, a conflict of interest
- Compromises, or may compromise, the organisation's integrity or reputation

All gifts, hospitality, and entertainment that are accepted or given must be:

- Reasonable in value and within the limits defined in this policy
- Occasional and appropriate within the business context
- Provided solely for legitimate business purposes
- Properly declared and recorded in accordance with the procedures set out herein

Definitions

- Gift – Any item of value, including goods, services, vouchers, discounts, or benefits provided without expectation of payment.
- Hospitality – Provision of meals, travel, accommodation, or other business courtesies extended in a professional context.
- Entertainment – Leisure or recreational activities provided in a business context, such as sporting events, cultural events, or similar.
- Government / Public Official – Any employee, officer, or representative of a government department, state-owned enterprise, regulatory body, or international organisation.

- Third Party – Any individual or entity that acts on behalf of, or in a business relationship with, Amnex InfoTechnologies, including agents, distributors, contractors, and consultants.

6. Risk-Based Approach

Amnex InfoTechnologies Pvt. Ltd. adopts a risk-based approach to identify, assess, and mitigate risks related to bribery and corruption. Enhanced due diligence and scrutiny shall be applied in high-risk scenarios, including but not limited to:

- Procurement activities and vendor selection processes
- Contract negotiations, approvals, and award decisions
- High-value transactions or cross-border business dealings

Employees are required to exercise heightened vigilance and adhere to internal controls in such situations. Where there is any uncertainty or perceived risk, employees must seek guidance from their line manager or HRBP before proceeding.

Acceptable Practices

General Conditions

Gifts, hospitality, or entertainment may be offered or accepted only when all of the following conditions are met:

- They are of nominal and reasonable value, within the limits defined in this policy
- They are infrequent, appropriate, and not excessive in nature
- They are not in the form of cash or cash equivalents (including vouchers, gift cards, or similar instruments)
- They are provided openly and transparently for legitimate business purposes
- They are properly declared, recorded, and approved in accordance with this policy
- They do not influence, or appear to influence, business decisions or outcomes
- They are consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and organisational policies

Monetary Threshold for Unsolicited / Token Gifts

A gift with a value of ₹1,500 or below may be accepted without prior approval, provided it is declared in the Gift & Hospitality Register within five (5) working days of receipt. Gifts above this threshold require prior approval as set out in Section 9.

No employee may receive gifts exceeding ₹10,000 in aggregate from any single source (individual, company, or associated group) within any rolling 12-month period without escalating the matter to HR and the Risk & Compliance Committee for review.

Prohibited Practices

The following practices are strictly prohibited under this policy:

- Offering, promising, giving, soliciting, or accepting cash, cash equivalents, or any form of personal benefit as a gift
- Providing or accepting gifts, hospitality, or entertainment during active tendering, bidding, or contract negotiation processes
- Offering or accepting lavish, excessive, or inappropriate hospitality that is disproportionate to legitimate business purposes
- Concealing, misrepresenting, or failing to declare applicable gifts, hospitality, or entertainment
- Engaging in any activity that constitutes, or may reasonably be perceived as, bribery, corruption, inducement, or undue influence
- Circumventing established approval, recording, or compliance procedures
- Retaliating against, or discouraging, any employee who raises a concern in good faith under this policy

Approval & Authorisation

Prior approval must be obtained before offering or accepting gifts, hospitality, or entertainment above the defined thresholds. The authorisation matrix is as follows:

Gift / Hospitality Value	Approval Required
₹1,501 - ₹2,000	Business Unit Head
₹2,001 – ₹10,000	Head of HR + Business Unit Head
Above ₹10,000	Head of HR + Business Unit Head + CHRO/COO/CBO

No gift, hospitality, or entertainment falling under the above categories shall be offered or accepted without appropriate prior authorisation. Approvals must be documented and the reference number recorded in the Gift & Hospitality Register.

Recording & Transparency:

To ensure transparency and auditability, all applicable gifts, hospitality, and entertainment must be recorded in the Gift & Hospitality Register, maintained by the HR function.

Each entry must include the following information:

- Date of receipt or provision
- Description and estimated value of the gift, hospitality, or entertainment
- Name and organisation of the giver or recipient
- Business purpose and context
- Approval reference number (where applicable)

The Register shall be reviewed by HR on a quarterly basis and summarised in a report presented to the Risk & Compliance Committee. A sample register format is provided in Appendix A of this policy.

Conflict of Interest

Employees shall:

- Avoid situations where personal interests may conflict with the interests of the organisation
- Promptly disclose any actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest to their line manager and HR
- Refrain from participating in decisions, approvals, or processes where such conflicts exist

All conflict of interest disclosures shall be made in accordance with the organisation's Conflict of Interest Policy and recorded accordingly.

Training & Awareness:

All employees must complete mandatory anti-bribery and ethics training:

- Upon joining the organisation (as part of the onboarding programme)
- Once every 2 years basis thereafter
- Following any material update to this policy

Training completion records will be maintained by the HR function and reported to the Risk & Compliance committee annually. Employees in high-risk roles (e.g., procurement, sales, business development) may be required to complete additional role-specific training.

Monitoring, Audit & Compliance:

The Risk & Compliance Committee shall be responsible for:

- Monitoring adherence to this policy and related procedures on an ongoing basis
- Conducting periodic audits, reviews, and risk assessments – at minimum annually
- Identifying control gaps and implementing timely corrective actions
- Reviewing the Gift & Hospitality Register quarterly, as presented by HR
- Reporting material findings and policy exceptions to senior leadership

Reporting & Whistleblowing:

Employees are required to report any suspected or actual instances of bribery or corruption, or violations or potential breaches of this policy. Reports may be made through any of the following channels:

- Reporting Manager or Line Manager
- HR Business Partner (HRBP)
- Designated Whistleblower Mechanism (details available on the intranet)

Amnex InfoTechnologies Pvt. Ltd. ensures:

- Confidential and timely handling of all reports
- Full protection of individuals from retaliation, victimisation, or adverse action when reporting concerns in good faith

Anonymous reporting is available via the Whistleblower Mechanism. All reports will be investigated impartially and escalated as appropriate.

Roles & Responsibilities:

Employees:

- Comply with this policy and related procedures at all times
- Exercise ethical judgment in all business interactions
- Declare and record applicable gifts, hospitality, or entertainment in the Gift & Hospitality Register promptly
- Raise any concerns or seek guidance before accepting or offering anything of value in ambiguous situations

Management:

- Promote a culture of integrity and ethical conduct within their teams
- Ensure compliance with this policy across their area of responsibility
- Review, approve, and monitor gift and hospitality transactions in line with the approval matrix
- Lead by example and address non-compliant behaviour promptly

Human Resources Function:

- Maintain and administer the Gift & Hospitality Register as the system of record
- Provide guidance, training, and awareness programmes to employees on this policy
- Provide a quarterly report on register activity to the Risk & Compliance committee
- Drive consequence management and disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's Code of Conduct
- Review and update this policy periodically in line with legal developments and organisational changes

Risk & Compliance Committee

- Oversee compliance with this policy across the organisation
- Review quarterly HR reports and flag any patterns or concerns
- Commission periodic audits and risk assessments
- Approve material changes to this policy

The Risk & Compliance committee will comprise of the following members

- One senior representation from HR
- One senior representation from Finance
- One senior representation from Legal

Non-Compliance & Disciplinary Action

Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action proportionate to the severity of the breach, including:

- Verbal or written warning
- Final written warning or suspension from duties
- Termination of employment for gross misconduct
- Referral to relevant authorities where criminal conduct is suspected

Disciplinary proceedings will be conducted in accordance with the Company's Code of Conduct and applicable employment law. The organisation reserves the right to pursue civil or legal remedies where appropriate.

Continual Improvement

In alignment with ISO standards and governance best practice, this policy shall be:

- Reviewed and updated at least annually, or more frequently where required by legal or regulatory changes
- Enhanced based on audit findings, risk assessments, and organisational changes
- Communicated to all employees following any material revision

Amnex InfoTechnologies Pvt. Ltd. is committed to the continuous improvement of its governance, ethics, and compliance framework.

Related Documents:

- Code of Conduct
- Conflict of Interest Policy
- Whistleblower Policy
- Grievance Handling Policy

Appendix A – Gift & Hospitality Register (Sample Format)

This register must be completed for all gifts, hospitality, or entertainment accepted or given above ₹1,500, or where approval has been sought. Submit the completed form to HR within five (5) working days.

Date	Description	Value (₹)	Giver / Recipient	Business Purpose	Approval Ref.

Register Owner: HR Function
Compliance Committee

Review Frequency: Quarterly

Reported To: Risk &